

Student profile : Business Management (BM)

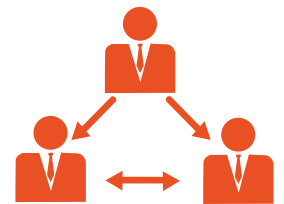

This department is training managers and experts in communication. In two years, a BM student obtain several skills depending on their 2nd year option.

A BM student can carry projects as a project leader. He knows about the other's skills, and help the team to reach its goals. He also know how to manage project, and many other things regarding he's 2nd year specilization.

Strong points :

- Business & law aware
- Strong leadership
- Professional behavior
- Sense of organization
- Accounting and scheduling skills
- Customer relation expert

These students can help you to manage a team or lead projects. They are aware of the impact of the new technologies on the companies and use them to make the projects succed.