

Student profile : Multimedia and Internet (MI)

This department is training experts in multimedia production and communication, but also web developers and designers. They are trained to do executive and creative work in the same time.

A MI student is able to act on several types of projects such as SEO, social medias, videos (realization & editing), photo editing, 2D and 3D graphics, web developement and web design or even project management and marketing.

Strong points :

- Multi-skilled
- Passionate of web technologies
- Professional behavior
- Creative sense
- Can advertise on print and web
- Aware of web languages (HTML, CSS, SQL, Javascript, PHP, ...)

These students are multi-skilled and have a strong web culture and experience. They also know how to use creative softwares such as the Adobe suite. They are perfect to resolve your advertising or presence issues on the web and are trained to bring the best solutions using up to date web technologies.